

WEB APPLICATION ENGINEER

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Our Web Application Engineer is a combined web development and systems administration position responsible for extending, enhancing, and supporting commercial and internal web-based applications utilized by CableLabs and our extended cable industry user base.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Work with end users and technical staff to leverage our collaboration systems across projects.
- Extend and enhance the functionality of the collaboration systems by implementing and testing plugins, creating templates and spaces, customizing the app format and layout, create user macros, create page and site templates, and perform theme layout modifications.
- Add new features and capabilities utilizing, CSS, HTML, Javascript, jQuery, Velocity templates and scripting languages.
- Implement and manage an online forums system.
- Administer security groups and permissions.
- Perform system configuration and administration on responsible systems.
- Collaborate with the other team members on various internal systems and projects.

REQUIREMENTS

- 5+ years of experience installing, configuring, administering and training users with Confluence or equivalent web-based collaboration systems.
- 5+ years of experience in web-based application enhancement and development.
- Exceptional skills in customer service, end user support.
- Exceptional skills at working closely with teams.
- Proficient in web development technologies including CSS, HTML/XHTML, Javascript, jQuery, Java Velocity templates, Python and Perl scripting languages.
- Proficient in Apache, Postgres and Linux system administration and operations
- Demonstrated ability to handle multiple complex technical projects simultaneously
- Excellent analytical, problem solving and technical troubleshooting skills
- Self-motivated with strong attention to detail. Able to suggest and implement solutions and enhance operational efficiencies.

- Strong oral and written communications skills required; ability to interact with technical and business teams in a positive & productive manner to accomplish individual, project and company goals.
- 4 year degree in Computer Science, related field, or equivalent work experience

ADDITIONAL DESIRED SKILLS

- Experience with phpBB, vBulletin or other forums software
- Experience with Zope, Plone, Alfresco or other document management systems